They go to Gorran MOOOVIES of course!

Stars of the Week – This Week

P1/2- Bonnie for being so brave and always smiling.

Cillian for being a really kind friend.

P3/4- Anna for brilliant work learning her high frequency words. Isla for great creativity and descriptive language for her monster.

P5- Jenny & Henry for excellent progress in maths.

P6/7- Anna & James W for their great interest in the visit from the war historian.

Christmas Jumpers

Thursday 11th December – Christmas Jumper & Dinner Day!

- It's officially Christmas Jumper Day AND our Christmas Dinner Day!
- Children can wear festive jumpers, hats, or other Christmas gear – this will be a non-uniform day.

Pupils are welcome to wear Christmas jumpers (with school uniform) anytime during the final week of term.

Carol Service – Wednesday 10th December @ Aghadowey Church of Ireland

- Please bring pupils to the church at 9:30 am.
- Carol Service begins at 10:00 am.
- Pupils are welcome to go home after the service or can be dropped back to school.
- A small bus is available for anyone who cannot be brought back to school. We're looking forward to a festive and joyful morning together!

Open Afternoon

We had a great afternoon. It was so nice to see lots of new and familiar faces keen to find out more about Gorran. Admission 'portal' opens on January 7th, 2026.

Friday 5th December – Aghadowey Church of Ireland – Tree Festival

- Please drop pupils at the church for 9:00 am.
- Teaching staff will be there to meet you.
- Bus pupils and Sunrise pupils will be transported to the church by bus.
- Children will return to school in time for lunch.
- Children can wear Christmas Jumpers!
- Normal pick-up time: 2:00 pm.

Thank you for your co-operation.
